Dear Mr. Morisy:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated April 9, 2013 that we received on April 17, 2013.

I am unable to send the information you requested by May 15, 2013, which is the 20 business-day period allowed by law. I apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause.

STATUTORY EXTENSION OF TIME FOR RESPONSE

The FOIA allows an additional ten-day statutory extension in certain circumstances. To complete your request we need additional time to review responsive records from other locations. We have extended the statutory response date to May 31, 2013, after which you can file suit. An administrative appeal is limited to a denial of records, so it does not apply in this situation.

REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL EXTENSION OF TIME

Unfortunately, we will still be unable to consider release of the requested records by May 31, 2013. We have extended the response date to June 21, 2013, when we believe we can provide a final response.

You do not need to reply to this letter if you agree to this extension. You may wish to consider limiting the scope of your request so that we can process it more quickly. If you want to limit your request, please contact the individual named below. If we subsequently deny your request, you still have the right to file an administrative appeal.

You may file suit if you do not agree to an extension beyond the statutory period. Your suit may be filed in the U.S. District Court:

- Where you reside or have your principal place of business

- Where the records are located, or
- In the District of Columbia

You may file suit after May 31, 2013. Your complaint will be treated according to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. These procedures require that the IRS be notified of the pending suit through service of process, which should be directed to:

Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Attention: CC:PA: Br 6/7
1111 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20224

The FOIA provides access to existing records. Extending the time period for responding to your request will not delay or postpone any administrative, examination, investigation or collection action.

We are granting your request to waive fees associated with this response.

If you have any questions please call me at 704.548.4406 or write to me at: Internal Revenue Service, HQ Disclosure, 2980 Brandywine Road, Stop 211, Chamblee, GA 30341. Please refer to case number F13107-0014.

Sincerely,

Robert Thomas
